

We

need your used books!

Donated books are sold online, and all proceeds go to the Cape Fear Literacy Council. CFLC provides free, personalized literacy and language education so adults can transform their lives and contribute to a stronger community.

Preferred books include:

- History or contemporary issues
- Art (history, instruction)
- Recent bestsellers (fiction and nonfiction)
- Textbooks, tech or business books
- Recent travel books
- Self-help, healthy living, personal growth

Sadly, we have no home for:

- Damaged, stained or moldy books
- Encyclopedias
- Magazines or electronic media
- Used workbooks

Donate books at: Cape Fear Literacy Council
1012 South 17th Street, Wilmington, NC 28401 - BUILDING A

Monday through Thursday, from 9:00 a.m. - 3:00 p.m.
To schedule another time or the pick-up of a large donation,
please email info@cfliteracy.org or call (910) 251-0911.

Thank you for supporting our Friends of Literacy online bookstore!

